Introductions

Elections

- Tammy Alexander and Shamayne Coles elected as LSAT co-chairs. Andrew Whitehead elected as secretary.

Meeting norms

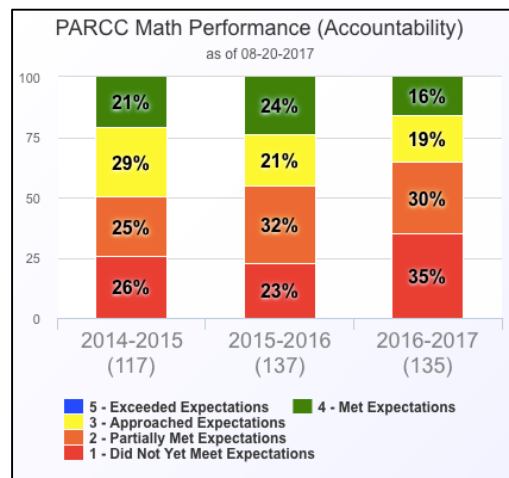

- Start on time
- Equity of voice
- Low tech, high engagement
- Confidentiality
- Solutions orientated
- Students first
- Respect of differing views
- Transparency
- Participation/commitment

LSAT purpose

- LSAT agreed to work on advising Principal Jackson on the priorities for Miner and checking in with Principal Jackson on the Comprehensive School Plan.
- The team reviewed the LSAT Guidance Document.

SY2016-17 data (Principal Jackson)

- Reviewed PARCC data from recent years
 - Discussed misalignment of test throughout the year (such as iReady) with PARCC. iReady showed much better math scores throughout the year.

- Climate and culture data (SY 2016-17)
 - In-seat Attendance 92%
 - Suspensions 75 (5th highest elementary school in DC)
 - Student Satisfaction 48% (Very low; typically, for a bad year, expect 65-70%)

CSP (Comprehensive School Plan) (Mr. Jackson)

- Draft plan in work, due Friday
- New format, will be more of a working document, can adjust if needed
- Will list CSP as a running agenda item for all LSAT meetings

For October LSAT meeting:

- Members of LSAT will each bring recommendations for the community member role on the LSAT.
- Dave Treat, PTO president, will bring summary of LSAT priorities for the past two years.
